There is an unconfirmed tradition that the Howes about Paris, Sumner and Norway, Me., are descended from three brothers who came to America from England. The ancestry as given in the following pages is well established and has been gleaned at intervals during the past ten years from various printed documents. This pamphlet is published partly for the gratification of relatives and partly to assist in the work of the larger and more exhaustive History of the Howe Family now under compilation by Judge Daniel Wait Howe of Indianapolis, Ind.

The principal sources of information are:—Report Record Commission of Boston, Mass., Temple's History of Framingham, Mass., Nason's Howe Family Gathering, Wyman's Genealogies and Estates of Charlestown, Mass., Savage's Genealogical Dictionary of New England, Essex Institute Historical Collection, Essex Co. Historical and Genealogical Register, numerous other books and periodicals and private correspondence. Recognition is here made for any assistance which has been rendered by interested friends.

ROBERT¹ HOW of Hatfield, Broad Oaks, Essex County, England, had two sons who came to America, Abraham², who was a freeman in Roxbury in 1638 and James² of Ipswich. This is according to Nason's Howe Family Gathering and Temple's History of Framingham, but it is now claimed by Judge Daniel Wait Howe of Indianapolis, Ind., and Dr. Oliver Hunt Howe of Cohasset, Mass., that the ancestors of Abraham² of Roxbury and James² of Ipswich are not known. They have failed, after due search, to confirm Nason's and Temple's statements.

ABRAHAM² HOW was a freeman in Roxbury, May, 1638, and brother of James² of Ipswich. Came from England. Abraham and his wife were members of the Church of Christ in Roxborough being confirmed 14th, 3rd, 1654. His wife died first week of November, 1645. His will was made 26th May, 1676, and probated 2 Nov. 1676, so he must have died between these dates. He was a fence viewer in 1653-7, 1661, and 1669-70. Appointed to receive moneys in 1658. He was an owner of 51 acres of the "Great Lots."

The Annual Gathering of the Putnam Association,

WILL TAKE PLACE

On Wednesday, September 1, 1877.

At the Residence of Chas. S. Morse,

Corner of Summit and Haverhill Avenues.

HAVERHILL, MASS.

The Cousins of Haverhill extend to you a cordial invitation to be present. — Every arrangement will be made for guests to remain through the night.

Haverhill, September 1, 1877.

Jacob Howe's name appears with rank of Private on Continental Army Pay Accounts, Capt. Lieut. Thomas Turner's Co., Col. Henry Jackson's Regiment, for service from May 24, 1777, to Dec. 31, 1779, credited to town of Ipswich, Vol. 16, pt. 1, p. 4; also of Capt. William Scott's Co., Col. Henry Jackson's Regiment, for service from Jan. 1, 1780, to May 24, 1780; residence, Newbury, Vol. 16, pt. 2, p. 56. It may be that he served more than this, but of this we are sure, as witness the following letters: "The records of this office show that one Jacob Howe born also as Jacob How, served as a private in Lieut. Thomas Turner's Co., 16th Massachusetts Regiment, commanded by Col. Henry Jackson, Revolutionary War. He enlisted May 24, 1777, to serve three years, and was discharged May 24, 1780; signed F. C. Ainsworth, Col. U. S. Army, Chief of Office." Another:—"He made an application for pension on April 8, 1818, at which time he was residing in Paris, Me., and 57 years of age, and his pension was allowed for three years actual service as a private in the Massachusetts Troop, Revolutionary War; a part of the time he served under Capt. Scott and Col. Henry Jackson. He probably enlisted from Essex County, Mass. His widow, Betty, made application and received a pension for the service of her husband, as above set forth. Signed, D. J. Murphy, Commissioner Bureau of Pensions, Department of War, Washington, D. C." This wife, Betty Foster, was the daughter of Moses and Hannah (Putnam) Foster, who was a grand niece of General Israel Putnam. Hannah's grandfather, Jonathan Putnam, married his second cousin, Elizabeth, who was a sister of General Israel. In the male line, Hannah's grandfather was second cousin to Gen. Israel Putnam. The double relationship is shown definitely in the chart on page 10.

Mrs. Ada Durell (see beyond) has a piece of black cloth given to her by her grandmother, Roxanna Howe Twitchell, who told her that it was a piece of Gen. Israel Putnam's wife's wedding dress, and was a family souvenir and that Mrs. Durell is 7 generations removed from Gen. Israel Putnam.

The immediate and slightly removed descendants of Jacob and Betty Howe organized what they called a "Putnam Association" or "Cousin Party," based on the relationship described above. A fac-simile of one of the invitations to a meeting of this association is shown opposite page 8.

Jacob Howe was the first mail carrier in Oxford County, being known as "Post Howe." He commenced about the year 1798 to carry the mails between Portland, Bridgton and Fryeburg. In 1802 he extended the route to Waterford, and in 1803 commenced making weekly rounds starting from Portland and traveling through Gorham, Raymond, Standish, and Bridgton to Waterford, returning by way of Norway, Paris, Hebron, Oxford, Poland, New Gloucester, and Gray. Mr. Howe made the round trip once a week reaching Waterford Friday night. He carried the papers in saddle bags and his letters in a mail bag by themselves. As he approached a house or village, he sounded his horn and delivered the papers and letters to subscribers. He is said to have been quite punctual but sometimes delayed by bad weather and traveling, and sometimes on account of sickness. The Portland Gazette of 1801 contains a notice in which he asks his patrons to pay up, stating that he had been on the route between Portland and Bridgton for two years. The Post Office Department in Washington state that the records covering this period of time have been destroyed by fire. He was certainly in the business for four years and was succeeded by Seba Smith. In 1830 the postman received $190 a year for all this horseback torture. There were no postage stamps or envelopes in those days. The postage due was generally marked on the letter, although it could be prepaid.

Betty used to tell her children and grandchildren how their "Sir," (meaning Jacob,) was cruelly treated while confined in Dartmoor Prison. This prison is in England and was used during the war of 1812, but diligent search has failed to discover any record of the service of Jacob Howe in that war.

Mr. Freeland Howe, Jr., of Norway, Maine, announces that he has recently published the "Ancestry and Descendants of Jacob How(e) of Rowley, Mass., Baldwin, Bridgton and Paris, Me." Most of the Howes in Oxford County, Me., are descended from this Jacob Howe who was a Revolutionary soldier. His wife's mother, Hannah Putnam Foster, was a grand niece of Gen. Israel Putnam. This relationship is shown in the text. ~~Your name appears among those of the descendants of the original Jacob, who was the first "Post Rider" from Portland into Oxford County, 1799-1803. The price of this publication is $1.00.~~

It will be mailed on receipt of price.
